5.3 Alcohol, medicines, intoxicants, deliberate acts or gross negligence

No indemnity is payable if the illness, injury or death has been caused by the consumption of alcohol or some other intoxicating substance, or an overdose or abuse of a medicine.

The indemnity may be reduced or disallowed if the insurance event is the result of a deliberate act or gross negligence on the part of the insured or another party entitled to the indemnity (see clause 3 of the General Terms and Conditions of Group Insurance). No indemnity is payable if the loss or damage is due to participation of the insured in an actual or attempted criminal act.

5.4 Nuclear accident, riot, war, armed conflict, aviation accident, landslide and avalanche

No indemnity is payable for loss or damage due to:

- a nuclear accident described in the Nuclear Liability Act, regardless of where the accident occurs,
- a nuclear weapon, nuclear accident or other comparable incident,
- participation in violent industrial action, insurrection or other violent civil commotion in a public place,
- participation in an actual or attempted criminal act,
- an accident caused by the insured's participation in active military, police, militia, or peace-keeping operations or

- exercises for such operations,
- war or armed conflict,
- an aviation accident if the insured is a member of the crew of the aircraft or performing duties related to the flight,
- landslide or avalanche.

5.4.1 Terrorism

The insurance does not cover loss caused by an act of terrorism.

'Act of terrorism' means the use of force or violence or the threat of such, intended to cause or resulting in property damage, personal injury or disturbance, or action which endangers human life or property when the action is directed against an individual, property or authority and its expressed or otherwise obvious aim is the attainment of financial, ethnic, nationalist, political, racial, religious or other goals.

The exclusion also applies to injury or death caused by use of international military force to hinder, prevent or alleviate a known or suspected terrorist act. Acts of terrorism also include acts, which the government concerned has proved or stated to be acts of terrorism.

Robberies or other criminal acts whose aim is the perpetrator's personal good, and acts caused by personal relationships between the perpetrator(s) and victim(s) are not deemed acts of terrorism.

5.4.2 Radioactive, biological and chemical substances

No indemnity is paid under the insurance if the event is due to:

- use of radioactive substances or emissions which either directly or indirectly result in a nuclear reaction, radioactive radiation or contamination,
- use, escape or release of poisonous biological or chemical substances.

6. Accidental death

The sum insured, which is EUR 100,000, is paid in the event of accidental death of the insured in accordance with the insurance terms and conditions. In the event of accidental death of a child under 16 years of age, the indemnity is EUR 1,700.

The death benefit is based on the person's age at the time of death.

Indemnities paid to the insured for an accidental permanent disability are deducted from the death benefit if the death was caused by the same accident.

However, no indemnity is paid if the insured dies after one (1) year has elapsed since the accident (the date of the incident).

7. Indemnity for permanent disability accidents

Permanent disability means a medically assessed general disability due to an injury sustained by the insured. In determining disability, only the nature of the injury is taken into account; the individual circumstances of the injured, such as his/her profession or leisure-time pursuits, do not affect the determination of disability.

The policy covers permanent injury to an upper limb, a lower limb, the cervical spine, the back and/or the head and the eyes. The degree of disability thus caused is determined in accordance with decision 1012/86 of the Finnish Ministry of Social Affairs and Health (MSAH) (clauses 1-6 and 10 of the decision).

However, this policy does not indemnify for permanent disability on the following grounds: the sequela of brain damage (MSAH, clause 7), mental retardation (MSAH, clause 8), injury to the spinal cord (MSAH, clause 9), eye injury (MSAH, clause 10), injury causing hearing disability or other sensory disability (MSAH, clause 11), injury to the respiratory organs (MSAH, clause 12), injury to the circulatory system (MSAH, clause 13), injury to organs in the abdominal or pelvic regions (MSAH, clause 14) or injury to the epidermis (MSAH, clause 15). No indemnity is payable if the disability results from a mental health problem.

Permanent disability is determined one (1) year after an accident, at the earliest. If the degree of disability is raised by at least two disability categories before three (3) years have elapsed since the indemnity for permanent disability was paid for the first time, a revised amount of indemnity will be paid corresponding to the rise in the disability category. A change in the degree of disability after the stated period will not affect the amount of indemnity paid.

No indemnity for permanent disability is payable if the permanent disability manifests for the first time more than three (3) years after the accident.

Injuries are divided into disability categories 1-20, with category 20 corresponding to full disability. For full and permanent disability, an indemnity is payable equal to the sum insured valid at the time the accident occurred (see clause 4 of the terms and conditions). For partial and permanent disability, an indemnity is payable equal to as many twentieths of the sum insured as indicated by the disability category. Additionally, indemnity is only paid provided that disability of at least category 2 (10%) occurs.

8. Trip Cancellation

8.1 Losses covered

The insurance covers costs incurred from cancellation of a trip, i.e. prevention of the insured's departure from the home country due to a sudden serious illness, accident or death of the insured or his/her next-of-kin. The necessity is assessed on medical grounds.

Cancellation costs are also indemnified if the cancellation is due to sudden, considerable financial damage to the property of the insured in his/her home country, which compels the insured to cancel the trip. Other insured persons living in the same household are also covered for trip cancellation if one of the insured persons is prevented from travelling as defined herein-above. In the event of cancellation, the insurance covers costs up to the sum insured for which the insured is liable under the tour operator's travel conditions and the Package Travel Act 1079/94. If the trip organizer is not a tour operator (travel agency) as referred to in the Package Travel Act, the insurance covers travel and accommodation costs. The insurance does not cover other costs paid in advance before the trip.

Any remuneration or compensation that the insured is or would be entitled to from the tour operator when the reason for the cancellation transpires are deducted from the indemnity. The next-of-kin mentioned above refers to a spouse, common-law spouse, child, adoptive or foster child, child of the spouse or common-law spouse, grandchild, parents, parents-in-law, adoptive or foster parents, parents of the common-law spouse, siblings, half-siblings or stepsiblings, daughter-in-law or son-in-law or, if the insured has booked the trip for two people, travelling companion.

8.2 Restriction clause - no indemnity is paid

The cancellation of a trip is not covered if the insured was aware of the reason for the cancellation before booking and paying for the trip.

9. Missed departure

The policy indemnifies costs related to missed departure or connecting transportation abroad or in the home country of the insured in conjunction with air travel abroad, if the insured fails to arrive at the departure point in accordance with the original travel plan for a pre-booked flight, boat or train trip because a public conveyance or transport arranged by the tour operator is delayed or the private motor vehicle where the insured is travelling, is delayed due to a traffic accident where the vehicle is directly involved. The policy indemnifies reasonable and necessary extra transport and accommodation expenses. Expenses are indemnified up to the maximum sum insured defined in section 4 or at maximum the price of the original trip.

The policy does not indemnify costs related to missed departure or connecting transportation if the insured has failed to be at the point of departure as per the written instructions set by the transport company.

10. Trip Interruption

The policy covers, up to the maximum sum insured defined in section 4 or at maximum the price of the original trip, interruption of trip if it is caused by an acute, serious and unexpected illness, accident or death of the insured or his/her next-of-kin. The trip is considered interrupted if the insured has to return home or is hospitalised before the end of a trip. The necessity is assessed on medical grounds.

The next-of-kin mentioned above refers to a spouse, common-law spouse, child, adoptive or foster child, child of the spouse or common-law spouse, grandchild, parents, parents-in-law, adoptive or foster parents, grandparents, parents of the common-law spouse, siblings, half-siblings or stepsiblings, daughter-in-law or son-in-law or, if the insured has booked the trip for two people, travelling companion.

Untimely return of the insured is only indemnified if the care of the insured's illness or accident requires his/her return to home country on medical grounds.

In case a trip is interrupted, the policy covers:

- unavoidable, additional travel and accommodation expenses of the insured, but not food or meal costs,
- unused services, excursions and travel at the destination for which the insured has paid in advance,
- lost travel days due to an untimely return or hospitalisation.

Indemnity for the same period is paid for only one reason, i.e. either for hospitalisation or for untimely return. The remuneration or compensation that the insured is entitled to from the transport company or the tour operator is deducted from the indemnity. Costs arising from the repatriation of a transport vehicle are not covered if a trip is interrupted.

10.1 Indemnities for travel days lost

Indemnity for travel days lost is payable for the duration of hospital treatment or due to untimely return of the insured who has been hospitalized during the trip due to a illness or accident covered by this insurance policy or has interrupted his/her trip due to a reason defined in section 10.

As travel days lost, the policy indemnifies for the same percentage of the total costs of the immediate travel expenses paid before the start of the trip as the ratio of travel days lost to total travel days, but not in excess of the sum insured defined in section 4 or the price of the original trip.

The number of travel days is calculated in full 24-hour periods as of the moment the trip begins. The lost travel days are calculated correspondingly, from the commencement of hospital treatment or of interruption of the trip until hospital treatment ceased, but not beyond the date the trip was scheduled to end. If the last full period calculated in this manner is exceeded by 12 hours, the latter is considered a full day.

If the insured loses three quarters of all travel days, he/she is considered to have lost all travel days.

11. Indemnity for delayed luggage - essential articles

The insurance covers the purchase of essential articles up to the sum insured (EUR 170), if flight luggage is delayed more than four (4) hours. Essential articles include essential clothing and toiletries. The necessity of the acquired articles will be assessed in relation to the purpose of the trip.

If the luggage is delayed more than 48 hours, the insurance company pays an extra indemnity (maximum EUR 500) for the purchase of essential articles.

11.1 Indemnity is paid on condition that:

- the luggage has been checked in with an airline as accompanying luggage,
- the insured has taken reasonable steps to recover the luggage. Delay in the transport of luggage must be reported to the airline company concerned immediately, and the insured must provide a certificate of the delay in the transport of the luggage when presenting his/her claim.

11.2 Exclusion - no indemnity for delay is paid in the case of:

- flights other than those registered in the international reservation system for registered charter flights,
- luggage seized by customs or the authorities,
- a delay due to a strike or industrial action that the insured was aware of before setting off on the journey,
- a delay due to the imposition of a flight ban or other action by the aviation authorities or other authorities that the insured was aware of before setting off on the journey,
- luggage delayed when returning home.

12. Indemnity for delayed transport

The insurance cover is aimed at a situation where the insured has to await departure for more than four (4) hours owing to delay in the flight or a public conveyance (train, ship or bus) or owing to overbooking. Necessary and reasonable living expenses and any possible accommodation expenses abroad or in the home country of the insured in conjunction with air travel abroad are indemnified up to the sum insured. Costs of necessary clothes and hygiene products shall also be indemnified provided that the insured has been obligated to check-in his/her luggage to the possession of the organizer of the flight.

The insured must obtain from the airline company and/or traffic contractor a certificate on the delay of the flight or public conveyance and the reason for the delay. The original receipts and evidence of the flight bookings and their confirmation must be appended to the loss report. The primary responsibility lies with the transport company to which the insured must always present the claim first.

The purchases and overnight accommodation must take place in the travel destination where the delay occurred.

12.1 Exclusion

No indemnity is paid:

- in the case of other than customarily registered charter or regular flights, or conveyance by ship, train or bus,
- if the delay is due to the insured's failure to check in for the trip in accordance with the airline company's instructions,
- on the basis of a delay due to a strike or industrial action which the insured was aware of before setting off on the journey,
- on the basis of a delay due to the imposition of a flight ban or other action by the aviation authorities or other authorities that the insured was aware of before setting off on the journey.

13. Liability travel insurance

13.1 Material damage

The insurance covers any material damage that the insured, in the capacity of a private individual, has caused to a third party through his/her act or negligence during the period of liability and for which the insured is thereby, under current legislation, liable.

Loss or damage incurred in the same event or under the same conditions are considered a single loss event.

13.2 Bodily injury

The insurance covers any bodily injury that the insured, in the capacity of a private individual, has caused to a third party through his/her act or negligence during the period of liability and for which the insured is thereby, under current legislation, liable.

Loss or damage incurred in the same event or under the same conditions are considered a single loss event. Indemnifiable expenses include any necessary and reasonable expenses arising from treatment carried out or prescribed by a physician or dentist, as well as treatment-related transport expenses and burial expenses.

13.3 Loss or damage described below is not indemnified as liability loss:

- loss or damage to the insured himself/herself, a family member or a travelling companion of the insured,
- loss or damage arising due to an assault, a fight, or in connection with another crime,
- loss or damage to property which, at the time of the act or negligence, was or still is in the custody of the insured, borrowed, or otherwise made available to the insured, e.g. rented,
- loss or damage caused by the possession or use of a motor vehicle, motor-driven equipment, a vessel, boat or aircraft which has to be registered,
- the spreading of an infectious disease,
- loss or damage caused by the insured while practising his/her occupation, trade or other gainful employment,
- loss or damage the liability for which is based on an agreement, a commitment, a promise or a guarantee,
- a fine or any other similar sanction.

Where several parties are jointly and severally liable to make good a case of loss or damage, the insurance will indemnify for that part of the loss or damage which corresponds to the culpability attributable to the insured and to any advantage he/she may have gained through the loss event. Unless otherwise required by the circumstances described above, only the per capita share of the total loss is indemnified under the insurance.

If the insured compensates, agrees to compensate or accepts a demand to compensate for the loss or damage, this does not bind the insurance company unless the amount of the compensation is manifestly reasonable.

If the loss event results in a legal action, the insured must immediately notify the insurance company.

14. Termination of the group insurance

If the group insurance expires due to measures taken by the insurance company or Nordea Bank AB (publ), Finnish Branch, Nordea Bank AB (publ), Finnish Branch shall notify the insured of the expiry of the insurance, in a manner suitable in the circumstances.

15. Submitting a claim

A claim for indemnity must be submitted to the insurance company at the latest within one (1) year from the date on which the claimant was informed of his/her right to obtain compensation and, at the latest, within 10 years of the occurrence of the insurance event. If no claim for indemnity is made within this period, the claimant shall lose his/her right to indemnity.

The claimant must provide the insurance company with the documents and information needed to assess the insurance company's liability.

A travel loss report must be made on the insurance company's form, whenever possible, and be signed.

General Terms of Contract – Group Insurance

The General Terms of Contract are based on the Finnish Insurance Contracts Act (543/94). The most relevant provisions applicable to group insurance are given below (Insurance Contracts Act, section 4).

1. Sanctions

The Insurer shall not be deemed to provide cover and the Insurer shall not be liable to pay any claim or provide any benefit hereunder to the extent that the provision of such cover, payment of such claim or provision of such benefit would expose the Insurer, its parent company or its ultimate controlling entity to any sanction, prohibition or restriction under United Nations resolutions or the trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations of the European Union or the United States of America.

2. Key concepts of group insurance

The insurer is a branch office of AIG Europe Limited.

The sum insured is the maximum amount of indemnity entered in the table of benefits under the insurance.

Group insurance is an insurance in which the insured are members of a group (cardholders or trip paid by travel account), and the policyholder is the company (Nordea Bank AB (publ), Finnish Branch), which concluded the insurance contract with the insurer.

The insured is a Nordea First Card Corporate -cardholder, First Card Corporate Travel Account holder and his/her spouse and children under the age of 19 in their care. The insurance covers the spouse and children, even when they travel alone. The insurance is valid on trips and car rentals paid for (at least 75%) with a Nordea First Card Corporate -card, Nordea First Card Travel Account or AirPlus Travel Account. If the travel costs are paid with a AirPlus Travel Account the insured person should also have a valid Nordea First Card Corporate -card.

The child of the insured must be unmarried, live in the same household and be under 19 years of age. The adoptive children and step-children of the insured and the insured's married or common-law spouse are also children as referred to here.

The beneficiary is in the event of death the next-of-kin of the insured, unless the insured has notified the insurer in writing of another beneficiary.

The insurance event is an event for which indemnity is paid under the insurance.

An accident is a sudden, unexpected, external occurrence beyond the control of the insured, which causes bodily injury and takes place during the trip. Drowning, heatstroke, sunstroke and frostbite are also considered accidents.

Essential articles are articles that have been acquired when luggage is delayed, such as toiletries, etc. The necessity of the acquired articles is assessed in relation to the purpose of the trip.

Public transport is licensed transportation of passengers on regular routes. Chartered flights are considered to be public transport if a travel agency or a tour operator ordered the aircraft used.

Rented cars are all motor vehicles with at least four wheels, which the insured uses for private transportation of persons or goods for a maximum of 60 days. Cars, which are leased or rented for a longer period, are not covered by the insurance.

The safety regulation is the obligation recorded in the insurance terms and conditions or otherwise set in writing to observe the regulations aimed at preventing or restricting occurrence of a loss.

3. Obligation to prevent and limit loss or damage

3.1 Obligation to observe safety regulations

The insured shall observe the safety regulations recorded in the insurance terms and conditions or otherwise provided in writing. If the insured has wilfully or through negligence, which cannot be deemed minor failed to observe the safety regulations, the indemnity may be reduced or disallowed. The effect of the failure to observe the safety regulations on the occurrence of the loss is taken into account when considering whether to reduce or disallow the indemnity. Moreover, the insured's intent or type of negligence and any other circumstances shall be taken into account.

3.2 Obligation to prevent and limit loss or damage (salvage obligation)

In the case of an insurance event or the immediate threat of one, the insured shall, according to his/her abilities, take the necessary action to prevent or limit the loss or damage. If the loss or damage is caused by an outside party, the insured shall take the necessary action to uphold AIG's right vis-à-vis the tort-feasor. The insured shall, for instance, attempt to establish the identity of the tort-feasor. If the loss or damage resulted from a punishable act, the insured shall, without delay, report this to the police and demand the perpetrator's conviction if the insurance company's interest so requires. The insured shall in other ways, too, observe all instructions given by AIG aimed at preventing and restricting loss or damage.

AIG will indemnify for reasonable expenses caused by fulfilment of the above salvage obligation even if the sum insured would thus be exceeded.

3.3 Failure to observe safety regulations or to prevent and limit loss or damage under liability insurance

Under liability insurance, the indemnity is not reduced or disallowed owing to negligence on the part of the insured. However, if the insured has wilfully or through gross negligence failed to observe the salvage obligation or if the insured's use of alcohol or other intoxicant has contributed to the negligence, the indemnity may be reduced or disallowed. If the insured has failed to observe the salvage obligation through gross negligence or if the insured's use of alcohol or other intoxicant has contributed to the negligence, AIG will nevertheless pay from liability insurance the part of the indemnity which the natural person who has suffered the loss or damage has been unable to collect because of the insured's state of insolvency as authenticated by distraint or bankruptcy.

4. Causing an insurance event

4.1 Personal insurance

4.1.1 Insurance event caused by the insured

AIG is released from liability to any insured who has wilfully caused the insurance event.

If the insured has caused the insurance event through gross negligence, AIG's compensation may be reduced, depending on what is reasonable in the circumstances.

4.1.2 Insurance event caused by a person entitled to indemnity

If a person other than the insured who is entitled to indemnity has wilfully caused the insurance event, AIG is released from liability to such party.

If such a person has caused the insurance event through gross negligence or if he/she was at an age or in a state of mind which means that he/she could not be sentenced for a crime, the indemnity or part of the indemnity may be paid to him/her, but only if this is deemed reasonable considering the circumstances in which the insurance event was caused.

If the insured has died, other parties entitled to indemnity shall be paid the part of the indemnity which is not paid to the person or persons who caused the insurance event.

4.2 Non-life insurance

AIG is released from liability to any insured who has wilfully caused the insurance event.

If the insured has caused the insurance event through gross negligence or if the insured's use of alcohol or some other intoxicant has contributed to the insurance event, the indemnity payable to him/her may be reduced or disallowed.

The extent to which the insured's action has contributed to the occurrence of loss or damage is also taken into account in considering whether the indemnity is to be reduced or disallowed in the above-mentioned cases. Moreover, the insured's intent or the type of negligence and other circumstances are also taken into account.

4.3 Causing an insurance event covered by liability insurance

If the insured has caused the insurance event through gross negligence or if the insured's use of alcohol or other intoxicant has contributed to the insurance event, AIG will nevertheless indemnify from liability insurance for that part of the indemnity which the natural person who has suffered the loss or damage has been unable to collect because of the insured's state of insolvency as authenticated by distraint or bankruptcy.

5. Identification in non-life insurance

What is stated above concerning the insured with regard to causing an insurance event or observing the safety regulations or the salvage obligation also applies to a person:

- 1) who owns jointly with the insured the insured property and uses it jointly with him/her; or
- 2) who co-habits with the insured and uses the insured property jointly with him/her.

What is stated above about the insured with regard to observing the safety regulations also applies to a person who, on the basis of his/her employment or official post with the policyholder, is responsible for supervising the observance of such regulations.

6. Beneficiary clause in personal insurance

The insured has the right to name a person (beneficiary) who is entitled to the indemnity instead of the insured. The insured may change or cancel the beneficiary clause if the insurance event to which the clause is intended to be applied has not occurred.

AIG must be notified of any cancellation or change in the beneficiary clause in writing.

AIG is released from liability to any insured who has wilfully caused the insurance event.

If the insured has caused the insurance event through gross negligence, AIG's liability may be reduced, depending on what is reasonable in the circumstances.

7. Indemnification procedure

7.1 Obligations of a claimant

The claimant shall comply with the instructions for claiming indemnity given in the terms and conditions of the personal or non-life insurance and provide AIG with the documentation mentioned therein.

The claimant shall provide AIG with documents and information necessary for the assessment of AIG's liability. The claimant is required to acquire the documentation, which he/she is best equipped to acquire, while taking into account that AIG may also acquire such documentation.

AIG is not obliged to pay indemnity before it has acquired the said documentation.

If the claimant has, after the insurance event, fraudulently provided AIG with erroneous or deficient information which is of importance in investigating the insurance event and AIG's liability, the indemnity can be reduced or disallowed, depending on what is reasonable in the circumstances.

7.2 Limitation of right to obtain indemnity

A claim for indemnity shall be presented to AIG within one year of the date on which the claimant was informed of his/her right to obtain indemnity, and within 10 years of the occurrence of the insurance event. Making a notification of the insurance event is comparable to presenting a claim. If the claim is not presented within the said period, the claimant loses his/her right to obtain indemnity.

7.3 AIG's obligations

After the occurrence of an insurance event, AIG shall provide the claimant, e.g. the insured and the beneficiary, with information on the contents of the insurance and the claim procedure. No advance information given to the claimant on the indemnity, the amount of indemnity or the method of payment will affect the payment obligation as stated in the insurance contract.

AIG will pay the indemnity for the insurance event in accordance with the insurance contract or notify the claimant of non-payment of indemnity without delay and within 30 days of the date on which it received the documentation and information necessary for the assessment of its liability. If the amount of the indemnity is disputed, AIG will nonetheless pay any undisputed part of the indemnity within the said period.

AIG pays penalty interest on any delayed indemnity in accordance with the Interest Act.

8. Lodging an appeal against a decision made by the insurer

The claimant has several ways at his/her disposal for appealing against a decision made by AIG. If the matter remains unsettled after he/she has contacted AIG, he/she may ask for advice and counselling from The Finnish Financial Ombudsman Bureau or request a decision recommendation from boards. Anyone who is dissatisfied with AIG's decision may also bring action against AIG in court.

8.1 Right to correct

If a claimant suspects that AIG has made a mistake in its indemnity decision or some other decision, he/she has the right to obtain more information about matters which have led to the decision. AIG will revise the decision if the new investigations give cause to do so.

8.2 The Finnish Financial Ombudsman Bureau and boards issuing recommendations

If the claimant is dissatisfied with AIG's decision, he/she may ask The Finnish Financial Ombudsman Bureau for advice and counselling. The Bureau is an impartial body whose function is to advise consumers in insurance and indemnity matters.

AIG's decision can be submitted to the Insurance Board operating in conjunction with The Finnish Financial Ombudsman Bureau. The Board's function is to make recommendations for decisions in disputes which concern interpretation and application of the law and insurance terms and conditions in an insurance relationship.

AIG's decision can also be submitted to the Consumer Disputes Board, which provides recommendations for decisions on the basis of consumer protection legislation.

These boards will not handle a case while it is pending or when a ruling has been given in court. The counselling services and statements of the boards are free of charge.

8.3 District court

If the claimant is dissatisfied with AIG's decision, he/she may bring action against AIG. The action may be brought in the district court in the claimant's domicile in Finland, in the domicile of AIG or in the place of loss in Finland, unless otherwise prescribed by Finland's international agreements.

Action against AIG's indemnity decision must be brought within three years of the claimant being informed in writing about AIG's decision and the time limit. After the time limit has expired, the right to bring action ceases.

9. AIG's right of recovery

9.1 AIG's right of recovery vis-à-vis a third party

The insured's right to claim from a third party the amount of indemnity paid to the insured by AIG, or in case of person insurance, indemnity for the costs and loss of assets caused by the illness or accident and paid to the insured by AIG, is transferred to AIG, if the third party caused the insurance event wilfully or through gross negligence or is legally required to pay damages regardless of the nature of his/her negligence.

9.2 AIG's right of recovery vis-à-vis the insured or a person identified with the insured under non-life insurance

AIG may claim back in part or in full the indemnity which it has paid to another insured person from that insured person or the person identified with the insured who caused the insurance event or failed to comply with the obligations under clauses 2.1 (obligation to observe safety regulations) and 2.2 (obligation to prevent and limit damage). Under the right of recovery, AIG may claim back the full amount of indemnity paid if AIG had, under clauses 2.1, 2.2 or 3.2, been free from liability or entitled to disallow indemnity. If the indemnity has been reduced in accordance with clauses 2.1, 2.2 or 3.2, AIG may claim for that part of the indemnity which corresponds to the reduction.

10. Termination of insurance contract

10.1 AIG's right to give notice of termination of the non-life insurance of a group policyholder during the insurance period

AIG has the right to give notice of termination of the insurance during the insurance period if:

- 1) the insured has wilfully or through gross negligence failed to observe the safety regulations;
- 2) the insured has, after the insurance event, fraudulently submitted to AIG erroneous or deficient information which is of importance in assessing AIG's liability.

10.2 AIG's procedure of termination

AIG shall notify the policyholder in writing of the termination of insurance concerning a person covered by a group insurance. The policyholder shall then notify the individual insured of the notice of termination in writing. AIG shall give the notice of termination in writing without undue delay, having first been informed about the grounds permitting termination. The insurance contract shall end one month after the date on which the notice was sent.

10.3 Notification of termination of group insurance

If the group insurance is terminated due to measures taken by the insurer or the policyholder, the policyholder must notify the insured of the termination of the insurance. The insured's coverage is terminated one month after the date on which the notification was sent or the insured was notified of the termination of the insurance by the policyholder.

11. Applicable law

In addition to the terms and conditions of this Group Insurance Contract, this insurance is governed by Finnish law.
